1. Early in February 1953, [REDACTED] a communication from Schwerhorigen-Apparate Electro-Akustic, of Schwindgasse 13 bei der Karlskirche, Vienna IV, requesting advice as to whether [REDACTED] able to export hearing aids and their constituent parts to Austria. They were particularly interested in the "representation of elektron-apparatus and such with Germanium-crystals." The letter, which was signed by E Schmerschneider also requested that [REDACTED] submit a price list of our products and descriptive brochures. It is interesting to note that the letter bore a censorship stamp which contained the following words and symbols:
